2. Ownership Transfer and Lifelong Placement Obligations

- Final ownership transfer occurs upon completion of this agreement and approval by CanineSidekicks Service Dogs Inc.
- The placement participant acknowledges that lifelong placement obligations remain in effect following transfer.
- The participant agrees to maintain humane care, behavioural management, veterinary care, emotional welfare, physical welfare, and safe handling standards for the lifetime of the dog.
- The participant agrees to maintain the policies, restrictions, expectations, and welfare standards outlined within the Placement Dog Agreement and associated placement policies for the lifetime of the dog.
- The participant acknowledges that ownership transfer does not eliminate mandatory return obligations, welfare protections, or program oversight requirements where applicable.

3. Mandatory Return and Right of First Refusal

- If the participant becomes unable or unwilling to retain the dog at any point during the dog's lifetime, the dog must first be returned to CanineSidekicks Service Dogs Inc. or formally offered back to the organization before alternate placement may occur.
- The participant may not independently sell, surrender, transfer, gift, foster, abandon, lease, or rehome the dog without prior written authorization from CanineSidekicks Service Dogs Inc.
- The organization retains right of first refusal for the lifetime of the dog unless otherwise released in writing.

4. Welfare and Care Responsibilities

- The participant agrees to maintain routine veterinary care, preventative care, appropriate nutrition, behavioural management, environmental safety, emotional welfare, and physical welfare.
- The participant agrees to report significant illness, injury, behavioural deterioration, aggression concerns, or public safety concerns affecting the dog.
- The participant agrees to maintain emergency care planning and emergency caregiver arrangements appropriate to the dog's needs.
- Unsafe handling, neglect, abandonment, fraudulent representation, or significant welfare concerns may result in reassessment, intervention, or reacquisition procedures where permitted under applicable agreements.

5. Mandatory Follow-Up and Recertification Requirements

The placement participant agrees to participate in mandatory post-placement follow-up reviews and recertification requirements as part of the ongoing placement oversight framework.
