TeachPrep Station – Plan, Print, and Get Ahead

Want to walk into the new school year feeling one step ahead? Book time this summer at our Teacher Prep Station!

You'll get access to the full workspace, and tools to start make copies, laminations and die-cuts to begin setting up your systems. Whether you're a veteran or a first-year teacher, this is your personal classroom planning oasis.

Keep an eye out for the registration link in the coming weeks via email and the facebook group.

Help Us Unlock Every Child's Potential – And Earn a Little Love in Return!

Classroom Central is teaming up with WSOC-TV once again for 9 School Tools— the Carolinas' largest school supply drive. With more than 162,000 students relying on us for the basics, we're calling on our biggest champions: YOU.

As a teacher, you see firsthand how critical pencils, notebooks, and other simple supplies can be to a child's success. And while you're already doing so much in your classroom, there's a powerful way you can make an even bigger impact—by helping us find more places to host a supply drive.

Do you have a spouse, friend, or family member who works at a company that would be willing to host as a school supply drive site this summer? We'd love to have them join our mission! Every drive helps us get closer to collecting the 1,000,000 supplies needed to support local students.

As a thank you for connecting us, you'll receive:

1. A free shopping trip for the upcoming school year
2. A Visa gift card—our way of saying THANK YOU for being amazing

Let's rally together to break barriers, foster equity, and ensure every student walks into school with the tools they need to thrive.

To get started, just click to button below to complete the quick form. We'll take it from there! Please complete the form by July 8th so that we have the time needed to help get participating companies up and running for a successful supply drive in July and August.

Thank you for being the heart of this mission. If you have any questions, please reach out to Darden at darden@classroomcentral.org.

Wellness and Balance Corner

You pour so much into your students—don't forget to pour into yourself. This corner is here to remind you that rest, joy, and boundaries matter too. Each month, we'll share simple wellness tips, time-saving hacks, and reminders to check in with you.

This Month's Tip

Give Yourself Permission to Just Be

You've spent the year planning, grading, and giving 110%—now it's time to pause. This month, give yourself permission to rest without guilt. Whether it's a quiet walk, reading for pleasure, or doing absolutely nothing at all, remember: rest is productive. Your mind, body, and heart need this time to reset.

Put this into action

- Schedule a “do-nothing” hour each day – Block off time on your calendar just for yourself, free of to-do lists or productivity pressure.
- Unplug from school email – Set an auto-reply and allow yourself a real mental break.
- Make a “joy list” – Write down 5 small things that make you happy and commit to doing at least one each week this month.
