

SDDacademy.com 65+ hour Sleep Disorders Dentistry Mini Residency

Learn what Sleep Disordered Breathing is, its prevalence, consequences, and why you need to become involved. Prelude to Intro Program. A 3-Hour Online Asynchronous Program qualifying for RCDSO CORE II CE.

Establish confident teams, understand evidence-based guidelines, current protocols, and technologies. Learn Sleep Lingo, treatment alternatives, clinician and team roles, and important verbal skills that facilitate medical-dental collaboration. Learn how to Screen and Refer Patients Suspect of Sleep Disordered Breathing for Medical Diagnosis. A 6-Hour Online Asynchronous Program qualifying for RCDSO CORE II CE.

Implement Sleep Disorders Dentistry, learn about establishing candidacy, oral appliance design, selection, and calibration, managing side effects and the various steps of providing an oral appliance including all physician reporting protocols. Basic and Uncomplicated Oral Appliance Therapy for Patients Diagnosed with Sleep Disordered Breathing that do not have Serious Medical Co-morbidities. A 16-Hour In-Class Hands-On Program qualifying for RCDSO CORE II CE.

Learn advanced concepts; optimizing outcomes, predict responders, bruxism relationship, subjective and objective calibration techniques, and how to manage even the most complicated cases requiring combination and adjunctive therapies. Oral Appliance Therapy for All Qualifying Patients. A 16-Hour in Class Hands-On Program qualifying for RCDSO CORE II CE.

Review various advanced & controversial topics in Sleep Medicine and Dental Sleep Medicine which facilitate conversations, relationships, and collaborations with professional colleagues. Converse with Confidence on the most Current Topics. For clinicians that have completed Level's I-III or have previously completed comprehensive training. A 16-Hour In-Class Hands-On Program qualifying for RCDSO CORE II CE.

Update on new developments, new appliances, technologies, research, guidance, and directions for Dental Sleep Medicine. Dentists should plan to take this program at least once in a 3-year cycle to remain current in this field. Converse with Confidence on the most Current Topics. For clinicians that have previously completed comprehensive training. An 8-Hour In-Class Hands-On Program qualifying for RCDSO CORE II CE.

Online Mentorship: Over 40 Hours of pre-recorded CE available 24/7, Live Stream Webinars and Study Club Meetings. RCDSO CORE II CE.

For More Information Visit...

SDDacademy.com

\ Dates & Programs Subject to Change without notice. Consult SDDacademy.com for most up-to-date Program Offerings.*