

Meet the Flock

An interview with... Jasmine Wilson

The Ops Nest

Thinking about our industry as a whole, what excites you most?

That the diversity and variety of shows is always growing.

What skills would you like to develop the most?

Public speaking, project management, financial management.

What or who could you not do without onsite?

Office managers, for support but also to be a sound board and lots of caffeine!

What's the best piece of advice you've ever received?

Don't sweat the small stuff and celebrate your successes more!

Who do you most admire? (Industry or not)

Ruth Baderginsburg and Michelle Obama for being strong, unapologetic women who stand by what they believe in and try to spread positive messages of hope and empowerment for the next generation of female leaders.

Where do you see yourself and/or events in 10 year's time?

Due to the nature of the industry and people who work within it, it is constantly evolving and innovating. I don't believe that there is any limit to the possibilities that events can reach in the near future.

What skills can you bring to The Ops Nest?

Enthusiasm and willingness to question processes to help improve the industry.

What's the best bit of being in The Flock?

Masterclasses with industry experts who are knowledgeable and engaging. Social events with learning included!

If people would like to connect, where can they find you?
