

Level 2 – Applied Knowledge

Holiday and Travel Law Refresher & Update

Session Date: Tuesday 14th July 2026

Session Time: 10.00 – 12.00

Objectives: This course will provide background to the laws relating to holidays and travel, specifically the Department for Business and Trade's (DBT's) 2026 Package Travel and Linked Travel Arrangement (Amendment) Regs. The session will also highlight the problems with organisers using AI, how the Digital Markets, Competition and Consumers Act 2024 is helping enforcement with current issues including cancelled and overbooked flights, cruise problems and pricing guidance.

Trainer: Bruce Treloar

Trainer biography: Bruce is Holiday and Travel Law Lead Officer for CTSI and is regularly involved in delivering training and offering guidance to trading standards colleagues and the holiday industry. Bruce has been heavily involved with developments in the holiday industry, liaising with the Department for Business and Trade, the Department for Transport, the Civil Aviation Authority and ABTA regarding potential law changes.

Programme – the course will cover the following:

- Key legal issues in holidays and travel, including Package Holidays and Linked Travel Arrangements (LTAs) until April 2027.
- Impact of the Package Travel and LTA Amendment Regulations 2026 on businesses and enforcement.
- Consumer protection under the Digital Markets, Competition and Consumers Act 2024 and CMA pricing guidance (CMA209), with recent enforcement examples.
- Misdescribed holidays, fraudulent trading, and social media scams.
- AI challenges in holiday advertising and travel marketing.
- Booking holidays online, via apps, retail, and social media, including liability risks.
- Risks linked to Buy Now Pay Later and holiday subscription schemes.
- Traveller rights in the Middle East and during airline disruption, cancellations, overbooking, or fuel-related cuts.
- ATOL requirements, UK261 flight compensation rights, cruise illness claims, and unfair contract terms.

- Refund rights for organisers and key cases involving On the Beach, Travel Republic, and Ryanair.
- Updates on EU Entry/Exit rules, APD increases, tourist taxes, and Summer 2026 CMA developments.
- Passport, visa, EHIC/GHIC, insurance, FCDO/ABTA guidance, airport responsibility, and the 10-year passport rule.

What is Level 2 V-Learning?

Our Level 2 V-Learning helps practitioners gain practical working knowledge through expert trainer-led sessions with structured teaching, worked examples and opportunities for delegates to engage in guided practice to assist them with embedding the learning.

In addition to this you will have access to some of the UK's top experts in their subject areas. The session will be delivered using Microsoft Teams, so you will be able to see and hear the presenter as they share their presentation with you.

With no travelling costs and a real practical focus on application of the law this training offers incredible value for both the individual learner and their employer.
