

Level 2 – Applied Knowledge

Introduction to Disclosure

Session Date: Wednesday 6th May 2026

Session Time: 09.30 – 12.30

Objectives: To understand the duties and responsibilities of a disclosure officer in line with the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996.

Trainer: Paul Keitch

Trainer biography: Paul is a retired detective sergeant from West Yorkshire Police. He previously worked for the National Crime Agency on Operation Stovewood (Rotherham CSE Investigation) as lead disclosure officer. He is currently a disclosure officer for Trading Standards, North East Regional Investigation Team and accredited trainer delivering disclosure, investigative interview and HOLMES training to law enforcement bodies.

Programme

The session will cover the following areas:

- ECHR Article 6 and 8
- The 4 R's. Record, retain, review, reveal
- The relevancy test
- The disclosure test
- Sensitive and non-sensitive material
- New Attorney General Guidelines on Disclosure 2024

There will be plenty of time for you to ask questions and you are also welcome to submit these in advance by email to info@faabtraining.co.uk

CPD Hours: 3 hours

Who should attend?

The session will be suitable for all staff involved in criminal investigations - it will be a useful refresher for those who have been involved with CPIA previously and will be a good starting point for those that are new to their role.

Fee & Booking: £90 + VAT per delegate

What is Level 2 V-Learning?

Our Level 2 V-Learning helps practitioners gain practical working knowledge through expert trainer-led sessions with structured teaching, worked examples and opportunities for delegates to engage in guided practice to assist them with embedding the learning.

In addition to this you will have access to some of the UK's top experts in their subject areas. The session will be delivered using Microsoft Teams, so you will be able to see and hear the presenter as they share their presentation with you.

With no travelling costs and a real practical focus on application of the law this training offers incredible value for both the individual learner and their employer.
