

BE THE CHANGE

What do you think of when you hear the word stigma?

What do you think a person who had stigma about mental health could think about it?

How would you feel if your community didn't accept you because of your mental health?