Justine van de Weg - Founder of A.R.T Behaviour

OUR STORY

Art behaviour strives to help people visualize, create & maintain emotional relationships through difficulties, overcome self doubt and take your life back. We bring to you inspiring visuals of processing your emotions without feeling in therapy settings, You are after all, the designer of your life.....

The journey began in 2002 with Justine's love and desire to create a way for people to design, organise and change their lives whilst having fun creatively. Now, after years, Art Behaviour has delivered solutions & collaborating with government, businesses, families and individuals with over 25 years experience and case studies
