

ROUTE

Crypto training

ADVISORY BOARD

"There is no favorable wind for the sailor who does not know where to go" (Seneca)

Advisory Board

Maurizio Camponovo

Born in 1971, studies in Psychology and Human Resources Management, has been Human Resources Management Manager and Training&Development Manager in leading Swiss banks, Member of the International Training&Development Committee of Generali Group, Member of the Executive Education Advisory Board of the Swiss Finance Institute and Member of the Training Commission of the Swiss Bankers Association. In 2014, he founded MFG Consulting SA.

Alex Pezzoli

Born in 1974, after classical studies, he graduated in Business Administration at Bocconi in 1998; his career developed for twenty years in the world of wealth management working for Swiss (BSI) and American (JPMorgan) banks between Lugano, Monte-Carlo and Geneva. In 2016 he founded Brightside Capital, a leading multi-family office operating between Ticino and Italy.

Alessandro Zamboni

For 11 years partner and managing director of the consulting firm NIKE Group SpA, specializing in Regulatory&Internal Controls for Banks and Insurances, he oversaw projects for the Financial Industry and designed and lectured on Internal Controls in ABI Formazione, Ateneo Banca Impresa, ASSOSIM. He founded Supply@ME S.r.l. in 2014, prior to its listing on the Main Market in 2020, and has been Chief Executive Officer of Supply@ME Capital plc ever since. In 2017, he founded RegTech Italy, a subsidiary of his holding company, TAG.

Filippo Bernasconi

Most of my 36-year professional career has been devoted to change management, contributing to continuous improvement in the effectiveness and quality of business services and products and to increasing the efficiency of processes and organizations. My most recent achievements involve outsourcing and insourcing of banking services and IT platforms, design and continuous adaptation/evolution of IT strategy. Over the years I have led programs to implement IT infrastructure, premises and banking services in Switzerland, Italy and abroad.

Lars Schlichting

Experienced blockchain and crypto assets lawyer, former partner at KPMG and Kellerhals Carrard, founds Lexify in 2023. An expert in regulatory matters taxation and new technologies, particularly blockchain, Lars and the Lexify team help financial firms in the difficult challenge introduced by the digital revolution. His major expertise includes Token Offering managements the use of cryptocurrencies and tokens in business operations.

Davide Gai

Serial entrepreneur who has been founding and successfully managing more than 35 high tech startup companies throughout his career. Currently, he is President and majority shareholder Healthcapital SA, formerly BSI Healthcapital which main activities are M&A of life science companies, global healthcare policy advisory think-tank, strategic counseling and fundraising. President of Gai & Partner, he is a Member of the Presidential Council of Franklin University Switzerland, and Director of Strategy and Marketing. He is member of the Scientific Board of Ente Ospedaliero Cantonale and Board Member of the USI-EOC Investment Fund. In the past, he founded Tecnopolo Ticino and several Life-Science Companies, being at the same time in several Board of Directors and Advisory Boards.